

AUDIENCE

It is very important to support ministries to particular people groups, such as those from specific continents, countries, religious groups, or people groups.

BALANCE

(Local-Global)

It is very important to support ministries that move us toward a better balance of local and global efforts.

FOCUS

(A beacon or 1000 points of light)

It is very important to narrow our focus to fewer

OR

It is very important to broaden our focus to more ministries, missionaries, and/or projects.

HISTORY

It is very important to support ministries that continue

OR

It is very important to support ministries that move away from

much of the mission efforts and values of the past.

"OUR OWN"

It is very important to support those we already know or who are part of our congregation or fellowship.

OUR ROLES

It is very important to support ministry that fits the gifts, skills, vocations, and inclinations of our congregation so they will 'own' the ministry.

PARTICIPATION

It is very important to support ministries, projects, and missionaries where our people will be able to participate and contribute hands-on.

PARTNERSHIPS

It is very important to support ministry that works in partnership with other churches, mission organizations, national workers, or national churches or organizations.

TASK

It is very important to support ministry tasks that we consider most strategic and important.